

Ulfric spice

KNPCUlfric

To start the spice is best if you are not in relationship with Kaidan yet and have early flirting switch active. If you want to start the Ulfric spice questline after you started relationship with Kaidan already, make sure you are in early stages of that relationship. Otherwise you will get locked out of this questline if you progress the romance too fast. You have to have "spice switch" turned ON through the whole Ulfric questline and either have "early flirt" switch turned ON or worn already Amulet of Mara for Kaidan.

How to check what stage of quest you are on sqv "quest name"

in this case:

sqv KNPCUlfric

Congratulations you completed Ulfric spice

Note:

As long as you reach the stage 80 of KNPCUlfric – you can finish the CW questline itself (conquer Solitude) without starting a romance with Kaidan. Once you reach the romance stage 75 whenever after -> the Ulfric spice is gonna pick up where it left off ;)

If you have Fratpack with you, they have idle comments (or some full dialogues) through out the Civil War questline – joining Stormcloaks, during Jagged Crown quest, Message to Whiterun, Battle for Whiterun.
