

KARDAN

Noble Girl Quest

“There was a noble girl I was sweet on when I was a lad”

Notes and Requirements

Notes

- This quest is optional and can easily be avoided.
- The quest runs alongside the romance and extends it considerably.
- A alternative first kiss and date convo has been added to this quest. The original ones are still available if you do not do this quest.
- For the optional Erik, Farkas and Vilkas convos they need to be followers (they have had some travelling convos)

Requirements

- Friendship complete (stage 70)
- Early flirt switch active
- Angst switch active
- Have not progressed farther in romance than “Have you ever thought about marriage?”

Noble Girl Quest (Addy) Start

To start the quest, once the requirements are met attend the Blue Palace in Solitude. This is stage 0.

When you enter the Blue Palace Kaidan and Addy will have their first meeting.

Following this meeting there is:

- Kai-DB convo available immediately.
- After leaving Blue Palace, optional Farkas convo will play.
- After leaving Haafingar Hold, optional Erik convo will play.
- First letter from Kaidan in tent.

*This first meeting can happen anytime after reaching friend 70 and is up to the player how long between this first meeting and the continuation of the quest.

*All other stages of this quest will require the romance to have started.

For the next stage of the quest to continue the player needs to start the romance (please refer to the romance guide if you are not sure on how to do this). This is stage 10.

Once you reach the “I'm surprised you're not taken” question in the romance the quest is pushed to stage 20.

The next time you return to Solitude Kaidan and Addy will have the second convo (this can happen anywhere in Solitude, she's in the Blue Palace in the evenings/night and around the market during the day).

This puts the stage on 30 in which there is:

- Kai-DB convo available outside Haafingar Hold.
- Optional Kai-Vilkas convo outside Solitude.

This advances the stage to 40 in which the Courier will deliver a letter to the player. (It is advised to be in a city away from Solitude to receive this letter.)

Once the letter is received there is a DB/Kaidan convo available

This conversion will give the player a miscellaneous quest to take Kaidan to the Blue Palace.
Sets the stage at 50.

Once you enter the palace with Kaidan the following will occur:

- Kai-Erikur convo.
- Kai-Addy convo starts immediately afterwards.
- Optional Kai-DB convo available now.
- After leaving Solitude, optional Erik convo will play.
- Second letter from kaidan in tent.

There is a 24 hour timer after the above occurs.

After the 24 hour time the stage is now 80, return to the Blue Palace for the following to occur:

- Kai-Addy final convo
- Optional Kai-DB convo available now

Stage 90 the “Have you ever been in love?” question is now available (still requires rest mode) this is an expanded version of OG convo which leads into first kiss.

After the romance timer is up Kaidan will have the new version of the “date” convo available (does not require rest mode)

Stage is set to 100 when “About the other night.” is available.

This sets the stage to 110 in which the final note from Addy is spawned in tent.

This then sets the stage to 120 in which a epilogue convo between Kaidan and DB is available.

Noble Girl Quest

Final note: the epilogue convo, requires you to have heard the next romance convo after 'about the other night'

Quest is now complete and the romance will continue as normal.
